Confidentiality Information

Christian Community Services complies with the standards set out in the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) as defined in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cwth) as amended by the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012 and in the Health Privacy Principles (HPPs) as defined in the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 (NSW). We will only collect personal and health information if it is required for the functions and activities of the organisation. Collection of the information will be done lawfully, fairly and in a reasonably unobtrusive way and only information that is reasonably necessary will be collected. We will ensure that information collected is relevant to the purpose for which is collected, that it is not excessive, that it is accurate, up to date and complete. We will only use or disclose information for the purpose for which it was collected and in ways that you would reasonably expect, unless you consent to it being used or disclosed in another way. We will not use the information for direct marketing purposes, nor disclose it to others for direct marketing purposes. We will take all reasonable steps to protect the personal information we hold from misuse and loss, and from unauthorised access, modification and disclosure.

Full details of our Privacy Policy can be found on our website (www.ccs.com.au) or in our Privacy and Confidentiality Information brochure, which is freely available from the offices of our retirement villages and care facilities and in our Resident Handbook under Privacy and Confidentiality and Rights and Responsibilities.

CCS will adhere to Surveillance Devices Act 2007 No 64 (NSW) when conducting any form of workplace surveillance, including computer, tracking and camera surveillance. CCS will only monitor the workplace for the exclusive purposes of; protecting property, monitoring employee performance and ensuring employee health and safety.

The purpose of this policy is to ensure there is transparency between CCS and all employees in relation to surveillance in the workplace. CCS will balance the reasonable expectations of employees to have privacy in the workplace with the need to monitor the workplace.

CCS Voluntary Assisted Dying Policy
